Stop Bush and Blair's war

Tony Blair wants to commit us to a horrific war. An attack on Iraq will

Middle East.

Bush's oil and war faction admit this isn't really about Saddam's weapons. They want "regime change". But it will be the ordinary people of Iraq that suffer from the attack, not Saddam.

Polls show the majority of British people are against Bush and Blair's war drive. Ten trade unions, church leaders, Muslim groups, leading journalists, over 150 MPs are saying, "Don't attack Iraq".

The Stop the War Coalition urges everyone to demonstrate on 28 September, but also to spread the word. Tell your workmates, friends and neighbours, leaflet your street, publicise the demonstration in your trade union, church or tenants group, and get in touch with your local Stop the War Coalition group.

An enormous demonstration on 28 September can make Tony Blair think again.

Please note that the route of the march has been changed because Trafalgar Square is partly closed. It will now go from the Embankment to Hyde Park. The march will assemble at 1pm, as previously advertised.

Aims and Objectives of the Stop the War Coalition

The Stop the War Coalition was formed on September 21st, 2001 at a public meeting of over 2,000 people in London. The Coalition is campaigning under the following slogans:

Stop the war      No to a racist backlash      Defend civil liberties

The resolution below, setting out the Coalition's platform, was ratified at public meetings held in October 2001 in London.

1. The aim of the Coalition should be very simple: to stop the war currently declared by the United States and its allies against 'terrorism'. We condemn the attacks on New York and we feel the greatest compassion for those who lost their life on 11th September. But any war will simply add to the numbers of innocent dead, cause untold suffering, political and economic instability on a global scale, increase racism and result in attacks on civil liberties. The aims of the campaign would be best expressed in the name Stop the War Coalition.
2. Supporters of the Coalition, whether organisations or individuals, will of course be free to develop their own analyses and organise their own actions. But there will be many important occasions when united initiatives around broad stop the war slogans can mobilise the greatest numbers.
3. The Coalition shall elect a steering committee which reflects the breadth of those involved to carry forward the aims and objectives. Local groups should have regular, open and inclusive meetings.
4. We call on all peace activists and organisations, trade unionists, campaigners and labour movement organisations to join with us in building a mass movement that can stop the drive to war.
5. We are committed to opposing any racist backlash generated by this war. We will fight to stop the erosion of civil rights.

If you are a member of an organisation that is opposed to Bush and Blair's on-going "war on terror" and agree with our aims and objectives, we urge you to ask your organisation to consider affiliating to the Stop the War Coalition. Together, we can make our voice heard.

An urgent appeal for donations

Dear Friends,

The Stop the War Coalition urgently needs your generous financial support.

Since our formation in September 2001, we have brought together a wide range of individuals and groups to campaign against Bush and Blair's bogus, perilous and inhumane 'war on terror'. We have succeeded in building an anti-war movement in Britain that unites globalisation campaigners, along with activists from traditional peace organisations and political parties.

The Stop the War Coalition has been the driving force in mobilising hundreds of thousands in a series of highly successful national demonstrations in London. We have helped organise teach-ins and other events in localities up and down the country. We have recently produced and distributed 30,000 copies of our national bulletin, along with hundreds of thousands of posters, leaflets and badges.

We are now organising, with CND, a national 'Don't Attack Iraq' petition campaign. On 28 September, we are organising a joint demonstration with MAB. We hope this will be the largest demonstration yet against an invasion of Iraq and the 'war on terror' in general.

But we are desperately short of the minimum funds we need to carry out our ambitious but absolutely necessary programme of national and local activities.

We have recently secured a small, cheap office space for our enthusiastic but over burdened and under paid workers (one full time, two part time).

Without your financial support we simply will not be able to do what needs to be done — provide the basic resources to ensure our growing and diverse Stop the War Coalition can really make a difference.

We ask you as a matter of urgency to send a generous cheque made out to 'Stop the War Coalition' to: Stop the War Coalition, PO Box 3739, London E5 8EJ.

We also ask you to help us put our longterm finances on a firm footing by taking out a standing order.

If you require any information about us or our activities, please don't hesitate to contact us. Call the campaign office on 020 7053 2155, 020 7053 2156 or 07951 235 915.
